The Vauxhall Public Library began as a small children's library in 1948 in the Vauxhall School. Years ago, Nels Malm collected money from the community to help defray the expense of hiring a Registered Nurse for the community of Vauxhall, as the nearest doctors and hospitals were in either Lethbridge or Medicine Hat, Alberta. Later on, the Alberta Government placed an R. N. in Vauxhall, so Nels received permission from the government to donate the remaining funds to a children's library. Mrs. A. Hildenbrand, Mr. Ralph Ringdahl, Mr. C. D. Kelly, and Mrs. Violet Malm used this fund to establish a Children's Library in the school.
